

One Night By My Window

Murray McLauchlan

One Night By My Window - Murray McLauchlan

One night I did sit by my window,
With the wind blowin' cool through the trees,
It shook all the leaves in the branches,
It whispered my name out to me,
"Come with me now!" it cried softly,
I cursed, and said, "Please let me be,
I've no time to follow your dances,
Oh I'll never travel so free."

- More to come...
