

The Hit

Smile Empty Soul

Hey record company, do you need a hit?
'Cause I need a hit too, to give me a different view
Hey Mr. Producer, do you want a hit?
'Cause I wanna hit too, to keep me from hitting you
Just being in the same room with you
It makes me wanna get high, so I can forget you
Just being in the same room with you
I think Im losing my mind but I got nothing to lose
Hey landlord, do you need the rent?
'Cause I need the rent too, so I can afford food
Hey baby, do you need some of my time?
'Cause I need my time too, to not think about you
Just being in the same room with you
It makes me wanna get high, so I can forget you
Just being in the same room with you
I think Im losing my mind but I got nothing to lose
Take me away from these people
That want shit from me
Just tell them I'm busy, so fuck off and die
Hey record company, do you need a hit?
'Cause I need a hit too, to keep me from hitting you
Just being in the same room with you
It makes me wanna get high, so I can forget you
Just being in the same room with you
I think Im losing my mind but I got nothing to lose
