

Chokehold

Depraved Plague

Creeping quietly into your room
And climbing quickly on top of you
Holding down both your arms hard
As you soon become wide awake

Looking right into your eyes
As you are smiling back up at me
Both of us are ready to go
The game is beginning now

Grabs your neck
You fight back
Laughing to each other
Enjoying our games

Choke. Hold.
Blood. Crawls.
Choke. Hold.
Brain. Cries.

We fight all day long to Keep our rage in check and
If we ever get out Then
We will kill more of them

We Will Kill. All. Of them.
