Wardance

Wake up in the night
I'm screaming
Cold sweat on my face
Was it real or
Was it just my fantasy?
Evil eyes around my bed
It looks as if the glass
Has told the truth
Chorus:
The cards will never tell you lies
Though still you hope you can survive
Can you see the skull
Beside you
Satan smiles - he's there
If you're weak
Your life is in his claws
Look into the gypsy's ball
Dive into the secrets
Of your soul
Chorus (repeat)
Do you think I'm mad
I'm crazy
Join our circle now
Erocation
The wizard holds the magic key
Imagination has its limits
There are things you won't believe
They're true
