

Hannah

Robert Downey Jr.

There's a dark problem today, as always
'Nother black thought as our arms shuffle past
In the hallway Hannah, you know
Hannah done sleep on my floor every day
Simple and slow
It grows Now the clock's done ticking on my own
Motivation
Hannah, you kill with a look and your own
Special brand of temptation
Hannah Hannah, you know, you're doin' it
Hannah done sleep on my floors every day
Simple and slow
It grows And ... now he's stumblin' in his buckskin
And we're, we're rootin' for a suicide
He's a boy-king, but he's a bastard with a problem
She's a stomping beast, and a dark demanding child No small wonder that this boy's little war toys
Got him bombed on the carpet
(brown-out in the townhouse)
I believe I'd conceive to exhibit all the prowess of a paper-bag soldier
(burn out)
Hannah's not home
(trippin' trippin trippin blowin' it)
It pains me you've put your foundation so at risk
Were you displeased?
(breeding, breeding incompetence)
You are dismissed
You are dismissed Now he's stumblin' in his buckskin
And we're rootin' for a suicide
He's a boy-king, but he's a bastard with a problem
He's a stomping beast, and a dark demanding child
