

Homesick

Train

So you're tired of wakin' up on empty
You left for something that ain't real
So you think a couple of familiar faces
Is gonna turn it all around You wanna be where they still pump your gas for you
Where they remember your name
They think that you are some beauty queen
Or somethin' better, where they remember your name And ain't it good to think about the weather
Doesn't seem to be time for that no more
It's hard to hear when you're busy sayin' what you want said
What you want said, it ain't clear You wanna be where they still open doors for you
It's not hard for them to remember you at all
They light your cigarette and tell their friends
You used to love them, where they remember your name More forgiveness, more time away
From feelin like you do today
More forgiveness, more time away
From feelin this way, alright It's easy when you laugh, reminds you of you
It's easy when it's easy, it still ain't easy at all
So you're tired of wakin up on empty
You left for something that ain't right
It ain't right, ain't right, no You wanna be where they still pump your gas for you
Where they remember your name
They think that you are some beauty queen
Or somethin' better, where they remember your name More forgiveness, more time away
From feelin like you do today
More forgiveness, more time away
From feelin like you do today, alright Babe, you're gettin' better
Babe, you're gettin' better
Babe, you're gettin' better, yeah More forgiveness, yeah
More forgiveness, more forgiveness
More time away from feelin this way

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>