Running - Disclosure Remix

Jessie Ware

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
You keep me, keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running

I'm lost again, it's happening
When you're around I just go weak
All I wanna know, is it mutual
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all

I'm lost again, it's happening
When you're around I just go weak
All I wanna know, is it mutual
Then I never want to leave
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all

Whoa, would you hold my hand like the air it's so gently here
Whoa, would you pull me closer and nobody knows we're there
No one can find us

Whoa, would you hold my hand like the air it's so gently here
Whoa, would you pull me closer and nobody knows we're there
No one can find us

I'm lost again, it's happening
When you're around I just go weak
All I wanna know, is it mutual

Then I never want to leave
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running

I'm lost again, it's happening
When you're around I just go weak
All I wanna know, is it mutual
Then I never want to leave
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all
Then I'm ready to run, ready to fall
Think I'm ready to loose it all

Whoa, would you hold my hand like the air it's so gently here
Whoa, would you pull me closer and nobody knows we're there
No one can find us

Whoa, would you pull me closer and nobody knows we're there
No one can find us

Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
Keep me running, you keep me running
