The After Dinner Payback

From Autumn To Ashes

I'm not wishing anymore
I'm not writing songs for you
I sleep better in the dark
I'm not doing this for youThis is because of you I don't believe
Tongue-tied, an institute of my relief
You're my, my reason to shame
My reason to shameI'm not wishing anymore
I'm not writing songs for you
I sleep better in the dark
I'm not doing this for youThis is because of you I don't believe
Tongue-tied, an institute of my reliefOne wish, that this [Incomprehensible]
You are all I waste today
(Discarded, worthless throw it away)
Will it tear you apart?
(Will it? Will it tear you apart?)
When I turn and walk awayAbandon, it's not worth the effort
When stalling, means
Too fucking scared to create
Abandon, it's not worth the effort
You're stalling and too scaredOne wish, that this [Incomprehensible] over
You are all I waste today
(Discarded, worthless throw it away)
Will it tear you apart?
(Will it? Will it tear you apart?)
When I turn and walk awayI'm not holding onto this
I'm not wasting words on you
I sleep alone in spite of it
I'll do anything for youThis is because of you I feel relief
Tongue-tied, to instigate what I believe
You're my, my reason to blame
My reason to blameI'm not holding onto this
I'm not wasting words on you
I sleep alone inspite of it
I'll do anything for youThis is because of you I feel relief
Tongue-tied, to instigate what I believe
You're my, you're my, my reason to blame
My reason to blame
