

Slip to Fall

God Lives Underwater

Now that I'm out of the nut-house and on my own
Having worn out my welcome in every home
I'm to blame for all of the things that went wrong
I'm just a kiss away from losing it all
I slip to fall
I lived two blocks from where I bought medicine
Escape as the guy on my way to serve my friends
I'm to blame for all of the things that I've done
I'm just a kiss away from losing it all
I slip to fall
Time creeps by when I'm in reality
Sometimes my feet start walking unconsciously
I've got some time but I've got my life to go
I wish the best for us all but I don't know
I'm to blame for all of the things that went wrong
I'm just a kiss away from losing it all
I slip to fall
I'm to blame for all of the things that went wrong
I'm just a kiss away from losing it all
I slip to fall
