

Burial Time

Cut Up

Sleeping, you have never felt the pain i give Mercilessly i thrust my nails through you
First your hands, then your feet, the blood will flow
Ravaging the skin, limb by limb
Rending through the human waste, i will defile your flesh
When i finally take your soul
Dismemberment, when i tear what's left apart
Disemboweled, the intestines fill the ground
Onslaught, upon what once was breathing
Now it's dead, it never stopped bleeding
Ripped apart, organs, skin and bones are everywhere
Grab the shovel, burial time is here!
