

Jewel

Bombay Bicycle Club

Old dust, old dirt
They're mine and only mine
I'm just some mortal, you are so divine
You control the game without playing it right
Raise high in me what ones did sink below
All dark within now radiant glows
Come on take me back all that time ago
Our love was just one of your discarded jewels
Think back to it's price and oh you feel a fool
In that certain light it did look so beautiful
