

Looking for Your Name (feat. Gavin DeGraw)

Armin van Buuren

Baby can I hold your skin
Can I, get a scent of the mood your in
I've been floating on this sea for so long
I wouldn't, recognize a place called home Oh, and what a moment that was,
How I got a taste of you in my blood,
And remember how I wrote your name
On the rocks down by the river seine
You said, "Hope nobody sees us",
And Jesus it was cold,
And I laughed because it was just too late
Even though I don't know
If it's safe I'll jump in it
I would do anything to find
And underneath a sky
That's full of stars
I'm looking for your name tonight Maybe if I chase this dream
I feel, how you intoxicated me
Upon the bridge, I hear a radio play
And it sounds like something you would say
And the feeling's ohh so holy
As I dive tonight alone singing,
"You're gonna miss me when I'm gone" Even though I don't know
If it's safe I'll jump in it
I would do anything to find
And underneath a sky
That's full of stars
I'm looking for your name tonight
If you ever return to this place
And come searching for a message
I'll leave behind.
It's underneath a sky
That's full of stars
I was looking for your name tonight
