Dogbite

Cripper

Under pressure
Under control
Feeding the living
With the limbs of the deadLong before the dawning
Longing for the fall
Hell, we keep the motor humming
I am humming, running dryBlack, on fire, arrows
Aiming in the sky
Searching for a shelter, home
Hiding from each other's painWake me, take me
Turn around and hate me
I may not be good company
But I can kill your apathyNear the end of the stay
Near the bottom of the line
We all follow the animal
And escape the painNow tell me more about the girl
That I'm supposed to be
Sometimes it seems I've had enough
To make me walk awayIf this is what you want
Then this is what you want
Who would even bother?
Say, who wouldn't want it, too?Love controls with silence
As it does with words
You used to say that I have fire
Now you're gonna see me burnBleeding desire
Beat inside, outside memory
Burning empire
Like a fever turning blood into fireWhat I fake
In my head
Alone
Bleeds
Wherever
I goNow is just
A matter of time
And we are less
Than a moment
Of high tension
Once bitten, twice shyOne is wrong and almost done
One is one plus one plus one

One is one more than just none
Another is just one
Another is just one
