

Misled

Evergrey

Strapped in a bed with no clothes
The room has no windows
I try to remember last night
There's nothing It is cold and my body starts to shiver
I try to fight it but trying makes me nauseous
I'm having a hard time deciding
This is where they take me
(Where they take me) I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honesty I don't recognize the silence
I can feel it the reality of it scares me
Sounds of steps outside
Keys in the door-lock White robes they're human
I've been misled I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honesty I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
I spoke with nothing but honesty I'm crawling back to sleep
And I still can't believe
How come you lost your faith in me?
Why did you lose your faith?
