XFire

The Bens

Were famous, contagious
We make outrageous claims
Public enemy, the royal family
Game over, pink champagneLet there be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my Xfire)
Let there be no doubt about itThe possibilities are endless
I can do most anything
And the impossibilities are beginning less
And meaninglessThere will be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my Xfire)
There will be no doubt about itThere was this feeling I had (Like you thought in the other world)
I was your destinationYou raise me
I will amaze thy
Radio plays me
(You dont faze me)I got no sympathy
If youre not into me
Then youre the enemy
(Dont shoot me)There will be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my Xfire)
There will be no doubt about it(You are dancing in my Xfire)There will be no doubt about it
There will be no doubt about it
Let there be no doubt about it
Let there be no doubt about it
