Dream

Lindsey Webster

Far away is a place they say
Where we can be free to be who want to beWell I won't wait for the day the to come
When you and I can live as one
It's not as far as it may seem
The dreamI can see
As far as it may be
It is coming near
The dream will soon be real
I believe there's a time when we
Will look into each other's eyes
Without a trace of animosityWell I won't wait for that day to come
So I vow now to love each one
For we must live without fear until
We dream
I can see
As far as it may be
It is coming near
The dream will soon be real
