

Self

American Head Charge

Artist: American Head Charge

Song: Self No sense of self

To balance it off Preconceived notions of something

That everyone's gone Will I show up

With all that I have to give

Would you consider it a gift But that

Doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway you

Liar

You're such a

Liar On your hands and knees

Picking up the broken pieces

Liar

You're such a

Liar On your hands and knees Afraid to turn my head

For fear of what's behind me

So don't frown on my surprise

Is this all you have?

Is that all you know?

I swear I've seen you before

But that

Doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway you

Liar

You're such a

Liar

On your hands and knees

Picking up the broken pieces Liar

You're such a

Liar

On your hands and knees Pleasingly (falling apart) Pleasingly (oblivious) Pleasingly (falling apart) Pleasingly (oblivious) You've left with more of the same

I can't win

You've left with more of the same

I can't win

You've left with more of the same

I cant win

You've left with more of the same

I cant win You're such a

Liar

Liar

Liar

Liar

You're such a

Liar
