Tell Me

Cathy Dennis

Night after night you're stealing my dreams
Just the same as you always do, ooh
And nothing's been right since you walked from my life
Don't you know that I'm missing you, ooh oohTell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)How could it be right when half my life is gone
'Cause this heart only beats for you
Forgive and forget that's all I'm asking
I can promise that your hurting is throughTell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)'Cause I've been waiting much too long, you know
Just trying to change those things I've done
Wishing you'd come back
Time is moving on why am I alone? OhTell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
Tell me baby are you really gonna take me home?
(Tell me, tell me)
