

All I Care for

Gotthard

Another day before us and we're ready for the show across the land of mystery everyone with their own dream sometimes harder than they seamHere I am far away hundred miles and oceans from you feel the need to cry out loud I want you to knowoh, you're all I care for oh, you're all I care for you're all I needSoon I will be back again I know, it's hard to love a kind of man always on the line always out of time just one thin I know for sureHere I am far away
you're all I need
