

Iron Teeth

Malickis Happy Corn Club

i am iron teeth!
you don't know what i want with your country!
who will stop me when i come to power? where will you take off to when i conquer?
how many sacrificed? doesn't matter! what fate has hell dealt you this century?
are you ready to fall into nothing? in the early 20th century after jesus' death on russian soil a baby was born and thus given life's breath now this young human's life was no ordinary average soul
a legend states that the baby's birth marks a significant role for this little one came equipped with his own set of iron teeth a priest christened the child that was an oracle from beneath the priest observed that the iron toothed child was a miracle
"this is no miracle," replied the baby to the man of god
"the miracle is yet to come!" and instantly the baby died the miracle which is coming is the dawn of the anti-christ (jesus christ is the) anti-christ!
(jesus christ is the) anti-christ!
may i have a list of the damned?
smelling progress in decay
