

Always Wanted You

October Project

For a moment I can feel you
Moving closer
A storm without a warning
A rush of colors
Exploding through you to me
All that I can seeIn the sky you travel under
I imagine
A sudden flash of lightning
I count the seconds
Until the thunder will come
Wash the world awayI've always wanted you
To know you are free
I've always wanted you
I wanted you with me
After days too long to number
Nothing changes
The once and perfect summer
Where you are laughing
And I am holding your hand
Sure of who I amYou have always been the center
Of my history
I think of you and enter
The sacred places
Where time erases the days
Leading back to youI've always wanted you
To know you are free
I've always wanted you
I wanted you with me
Deeper you breathe
Free of the past
Timeless and clear
You are here at lastI've always wanted you
To know you are free
I've always wanted you
I wanted you with me
