Zombie Slam

Pain

There's something coming crawling
'Round the corner of your mind
Oh, your funeral has just begun
Buried alive, it will be over in no timeThe date is set for tonight
VIP at the dead man's ballCome and die with the zombies in the moonlight
They become alive when you die, you cannot fool them
You got to slam with the dead and let it go now
See a thousand hallowed eyes stare into the nightThe sun goes down and the dead head minds
They start to resurrect
Under the velvet sky and thirsty for your flesh
Steals your soul and you will lose control
And turns your tears into dustYou're fool that will never learn
Play with fire and you will get your fingers burnedCome and die with the zombies in the moonlight
They become alive when you die, you cannot fool them
You got to slam with the dead and let it go now
See a thousand hallowed eyes stare into the nightIt's getting dark, so prepare to die
They're coming after you
It's getting dark and you can't get away
They're coming after youCome and die with the zombies in the moonlight
They become alive when you die, you cannot fool them
You got to slam with the dead and let it go now
See a thousand hallowed eyes stare into the night
