Let It Go

Adrenaline Mob

Why can't you ever just let anything go
Don't you know that the past is the past
You fight your feeling you heat your blood up
Don't you know that you can't go backSo just take all your demons
Don't give them a reason
Don't let them control your mind
Cause they are the problem
So what will it take
What will it take for you to just let it goThe past is the past
Let it go
The past is the past
Let it goWhy can't you ever just let sleeping dogs lie
You don't want to wake up the pack
They'll eat your heart out
They'll lick your blood up
If you feed them they'll keep coming backSo just take all your demons
Don't give them a reason
Don't let them control your mind
Cause they are the problem
So what will it take
What will it take for you to just let it goLet it goSo just take all your demons
Don't give them a reason
Don't let them control your mind
Cause they are the problem
So what will it take
What will it take for you to just let it goThe past is the past
Let it go
The past is the past
Let it go
The past is the past
Let it go
The past is the past
Let it go
