Silent Rage

Russell Allen

Refuse to see the misery
Don't you hear the crying souls
Refuse to give a helping hand
You give me no choice but
To show you the world around you
Show you a life in pain
There is a war going on here
Right before your eyes

I wonder why
You keep denying
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away
You need to stay yeah
The silent rage won't be silent
Silent no more

Refuse to see the sadness
Don't you see the bleeding hearts
Refuse to give them a second thought
You give me no choice
But to show you the world around you
Show you a life in pain
There is a war going on here
Right before your eyes

I wonder why
You keep denying
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away
You need to stay yeah
The silent rage won't be silent
Silent no more

Silent no more...Mmm
Won't be silent...No more!

I wonder why
You keep denying
A silent rage going on right now

Don't walk away
You need to stay yeah
A silent rage won't be silent
SIlent no more

Won't be silent... Silent no more!
