

By The Starlight (featuring Draemings)

Darkest Hour

Wake up my love
this has faded
tomorrow is waiting
I'm not going no where tonight
Wait up, don't wait up too late
I'll be out at the same place I always end up every night Please forgive us, carnivorous. To the moment I wake
Lay down, don't lay down to seek what you already knew
Some are endless
while others they can never last
I know, I know you've been patient while I've been escaping Always waiting for something you can never have Please forgive us, carnivorous
To the moment I wake
I love your lust
Mysterious
But it's always the way
Knowing every mistake
Till the moment I wake
It's big by the hate
With everything we create
Forever lost
This fight you create It's time you become It's never too late
I'm not the only one
Please forgive us, carnivorous
I'm not the only one
Please forgive us, carnivorous
I'm not the only one for you
