Ether

The Audition

Can someone please just shake the lies out of me?
It seems that every word I say don't mean a thing
I've tried so hard to reel you closer to freedom
With every cast I just exhaust all my optionsTonight, tonight
We're gonna make all the headlines
It's so damn hard
To push my pride to the sideTake back everything I said
Know that I'm never comin' home again
I know that it's for the best, ohCome back when I know I've been
Washed clean of my emptiness
With these words, I'm leaving less, ohI feel I'm constantly restricted by shackles
This so-called ball and chain is all I've ever known
I've climbed some mountains I thought I'd never tackle
They gave me sense of hope and more so sense of homeTonight, tonight
We're gonna make all the headlines
I've tried for nights to write a new beginning
And failed every timeTake back everything I said
Know that I'm never comin' home again
I know that it's for the best, ohCome back when I know I've been
Washed clean of my emptiness
With these words, I'm leaving less, ohOh girl, you know
Everywhere I wanna go
I won't stop, I can't stop
Till I get just what I wantOh girl, you know
Everywhere I wanna go
I won't stop, I can't stop
Till I get just what I wantTonight, tonight
We're gonna make all the headlines
Oh, it's so damn hardTake back everything I said
Know that I'm never comin' home again
I know that it's for the best, ohCome back when I know I've been
Washed clean of my emptiness
With these words, I'm leaving less, oh
