

False Messiah

Jag Panzer

[lyrics by Jack Starr]Was it written in the book that all would come
To bring PEACE and JOY to the land
Speaking in tongues that all would know
The day of judgement had begunFollow me said the stranger
I'm the shepherd oh can't you see ?
This kingdom is yours. Eternity awaits
But first you must come to meOh beware
You can never tell
Oh beware
Of the false messiah's returnIn the final days three lights will shine
In the east and then be gone
And the lamb and the beast will join the host
As the day becomes the nightThe dead will rise, the blind will see
And the lame will walk again
