I Should've Guessed (feat. Speak)

RAC

You won't say you have a problem
But it feels like you want someone
Cause it's always one or the other
You can get anything you want but it's never overI should've guessed, that you would only ever hurt yourself
I should've guessed, ain't nothing I could do would stop youAnd I won't say I understand it
Cause I come out empty handed
When I take you out for the night
The last thing that's hard is byeI should've guessed, that you would only ever hurt yourself
I should've guessed, ain't nothing I could do would stop you
I should've guessed, that you would only ever hurt yourself
Cause it's like you left for the fight
You know I'm behind you every timeI should've guessed, that you would only ever hurt yourself
I should've guessed, ain't nothing I could do would stop youI don't have to tell you why it's not alright
Whatever you do, you think you do it better
You know what she's like, you've met her
I don't know why..I should've guessed, that you would only ever hurt yourself
I should've guessed, ain't nothing I could do would stop you
I should've guessed (x2)
