

Little Too Clean

Soul Asylum

Thought I heard you screaming
And pulling out your hair
Furious and steaming
A state upon your stare Don't you know
Dirt will find you
And dirt reminds you
That dirt will always be there It's only
Dirt around you
And dirt surrounds you
And follows you everywhere Here's a dirty joke, man
Filled with filth and smut
The heart of it, it sparkles
The more it can corrupt Don't you know
Dirt can't hurt you
I'm truly certain
Usually washes out Don't you know
Rain will wash out
The stain and all of your
Pain will work itself out Work it out 'Fraid you've lost your innocence
To some odd social scene
You're right on top
But you've been replaced By a shiny new machine
And dirt keeps following you
And you don't know what it means
You're a little too clean A little too clean
A little too clean One day dirt will bury you
And you will understand
There is nothing much more
Than the ground on which you stand Don't you know
Dirt will find you
And dirt reminds you
That dirt will always be there It's only
Dirt around you
And dirt surrounds you
And follows you everywhere 'Fraid you've lost your innocence
To some odd social scene
You're right on top
But you've been replaced By a shiny new machine
And dirt keeps following you

And you don't know what it means
You're a little too cleanA little too clean
A little too clean
