Don't Wait Up

Stew Kirkwood

don't wait up
for her tonight
cause she won't be coming home
don't wake up
till it gets light
by then she'll be long gonea restless heart has set it's sail she can feel the waves washing over she knows what life with you entails you love her strength you despise your weaknessdon't wait up
for her tonight
cause she won't be coming home
don't wake up
till it gets light
the dogs are scratching at the dooryour jealous heart has won the day you can feel the darkness creeping over she paid the man and sailed away leaving you your incompleteness

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/