

Still Falling for You

Ellie Goulding

[Ellie]

(Fire and ice)

This love is like fire and ice!

This love is like rain and blue skies

This love is like sun on the rise

This love got me rolling the dice

Don't let me lose

Still falling for you...

Still falling for you...Beautiful mind

Your heart got a story with mine

Your heart got me hurting at times

Your heart gave me new kind of highs

Your heart got me feeling so fine

So what to do

Still falling for you

Still falling for youIt took us a while

With every breath a new day

With love on the line

We've had our share of mistakes

But all your flaws and scars are mine

Still falling for you

Still falling for youAnd just like that

All I breathe

All I feel

You are all for me

I'm in

And just like that

All I breathe

All I feel

You are all for me

No one can lift me, catch me the way that you do

I'm still falling for youBrighter than gold

This love shining brighter than gold

This love is like letters in bold

This love is like out of control

This love is never growing old

You make it new

Still falling for you

Still falling for youIt took us a while

Because we were young and unsure
With love on the line
What if we both would need more
But all your flaws and scars are mine
Still falling for you
Still falling for you
Still falling for you And just like that
All I feel
I'm in
All I feel
No one can lift me, catch me the way that you do
I'm still falling for you Falling, crash into my arms
Love you like this
Like a first kiss
Never let go
Falling, crash into my arms
Never breaking what we got
Still falling for you
Still falling for ... And just like that
All I breathe
All I feel
I'm in
And just like that
All I breathe
All I feel
All for me And just like that
All I feel is you
All I feel is you
You are all for me
I'm still falling ...
And just like that
All I feel is you
All I feel is you
No one can lift me, catch me the way that you do (I'm still falling for you...)
