Bloodbeat

The Meteors

I wake at dusk to go alone
Without a light to the unknown
I want this night inside of me
I want to feel, I want this speeding
I want that speeding

My blood beats black tonight

No need for comfort, no need for light
I am hunting for secrets tonight
Eat the sorrow, lick the spark
Uh, oh, my blood beats dark

And here it comes, it comes for me
I want to run, I want to scream
Get in my car with both eyes closed
Full pedal down and I am speeding

My blood beats black tonight

No need for comfort, no need for light
I am hunting down demons tonight
Eat the terror, lick the spark
Uh, oh, my blood beats dark
