

Here We Are

Breaking Benjamin

Sing it for me
I can't erase the stupid things I say
You're better than me
I struggle just to find a better way So here we are, fighting and trying to hide the scars
I'll be home tonight, take a breath and softly say goodbye
The lonely road, one that I should try to walk alone
I'll be home tonight, take a breath and softly say goodbye You wouldn't like me
Keep moving on until forever ends
And don't try to fight me
The beauty queen has lost her crown again So here we are, fighting and trying to hide the scars
I'll be home tonight, take a breath and softly say goodbye
The lonely road, one that I should try to walk alone
I'll be home tonight, take a breath and softly say goodbye, goodbye So why are you so eager to betray?
Pick the pieces up, pick the pieces up
So why are you the one that walks away?
Pick the pieces up, pick the pieces up, pick the pieces up So here we are, fighting and trying to hide the scars
I'll be home tonight, take a breath and softly say goodbye
The lonely road, one that I should try to walk alone
Just take a breath and softly say goodbye
