Righteous Man

Clancy Eccles

i've got this feelin' that i'll put on over try to find a _____ rules we're non-existent tryin' to tell us it's over and over again and its time for us to say i am the righteous man
every day its all the same
bang bang bang bang he said he took the bullet in the head while tryin' to escape he's better off he said tryin' not needing catch another scene it's a catch your mother if you can i am your righteous man
yeah yeah the same
all the same all the same
yeah yeah
it's all the same
yeah
it's all the same
i'm gonna wait wait wait until the morning comes i'm gonna skat-skiddly skat until ya feel dumb i feel a million dollars runnin' through my hand i'm gonna make more money than a dealer man i say
put down the badges and throw away your guns can't ya see we aint havin' fun no i'm gonna wait til' the break of dawn to hear this funky reggae song

feel the beat rushin' through my veins people try to tell me everything is gonna be all the same yeah
every day is gonna be all the same
yeah
all the same, all the same, all the same all the same, yeah yeah yeah.
