

Shiva

Baby Gopal

Heavenly denizens drowning in luxury
They`re on their hands and on their knees
They beg : "Please, let me live inside the Dham"
I want to go home, I want to go home
Shiva cries aloud
Let me be the stone upon the road to Vraja
Let the souls around
Rub their feet upon me as they walk the Earth
Time stays, we go
And life passes while we`re making plans
The few, they understand, they beg
"Please, let me live inside the Dham"
I want to go home, I want to go home
Shiva cries aloud
Let me be the stone upon the road to Vraja
Let the souls around
Rub their feet upon me while they walk the Earth
The demigods say "How desirable to get a birth in Vraja" x4
Shiva cries aloud
Let me be the stone upon the road to Vraja
Let the souls around
Rub their feet upon me while they walk the Earth
The Demigods say, they want a birth in Vraja
