

Nowhere to Run

Technotronic

Woah, woah now, woah
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run I'll never let you walk away
Without a word to say
Tell me your heart, pull it all out
I'll try to understand 'Cause this is not what you really need
And this is not what you really want
This is not the way it's supposed to go
Tell me baby no one will really know, oh Nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me Don't feel ashamed to call my name
Whenever you need a friend
I will be there to pick you up
When you're tumbling down 'Cause this is not what you really need
And this is not what you really want
This is not the way it's supposed to go
Tell me baby no one will really know, oh Nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me Nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me Nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide
You got to trust in me Trust in me, trust in me
Trust in me, trust in me
Trust in me, trust in me
