

Moved On (feat. Waka Flocka)

Rayven Justice

Got some piece
A piece of mine
I ain't got no time
I was like 100
Always actin' funny
I'm only in it for the moneyWhen I tried to leave
You always got me back
Throw the pussy homie
No I couldn't say no to that
That's okay
Now I know
Adios!
It's about time you let a nigga move on
Saw my ex bitch
I'm like
I'm like moved on
Lord knows that I, that I moved on
I see that you're mad cause I moved on
Cause I moved on
Cause I moved on
Lord knows that I, that I moved on
That I moved on
That I, that I moved on
I see that you're mad cause I moved on
Mad at me cause I ain't trippin'
Mad at me cause I got bitches
Doing too much for attention
You be getting off your feelings
I can't take this shit no more
This is not what I signed up for
What the fuck do I look like
Fuckin' with a bitch like you
I will keep on this until she's gonna stop
No drama, I don't know whyGet off this
Get out of my way
I see that you're mad cause I moved onIt's about time you let a nigga move on
Saw my ex bitch
I'm like
I'm like moved on

Lord knows that I, that I moved on
I see that you're mad cause I moved on
    Cause I moved on
    Cause I moved on
Lord knows that I, that I moved on
    That I moved on
    That I, that I moved on
I see that you're mad cause I moved on My old bitch is mad as fuck
    Cause my new bitch is bad as fuck
    I wanna take them off these clothes
        They wanna sit on my lap
    God damn, and it's great to be the boss
        And I see you calling
        And I ain't picking up
        You see a nigga balling
        And I'ma live it up
        You hate to admit it
        But a nigga did it better
I know you're trying to front it with your sick bandana
    So it's not because of me that a nigga moved on
        You can't hold on to memories too long
        You said that I'm wrong
        But I'm gone
    Tell the judge I'ma be out of the city
        Yeah, now we really in this, bitch
        This a new chapter
        You are an old book
        And judging by the cover
        You are old look
So please keep it moving on your CD It's about time you let a nigga move on
    Saw my ex bitch
        I'm like
        I'm like moved on
    Lord knows that I, that I moved on
    I see that you're mad cause I moved on
        Cause I moved on
        Cause I moved on
    Lord knows that I, that I moved on
        That I moved on
        That I, that I moved on
