

Slow Miracle

Andrea Hamilton

I fought and prayed I need the sky to open
Lightning to come, something supernatural
Throw this mountain to the sea
I said thatâ€™s what I need, and make it spectacular

Well i donâ€™t doubt that in an instant
The whole world could change
But there are far more seemingly ordinary days. and

Chorus:

Sometimes itâ€™s a slow miracle, like a flower unfolds
Dark nights and the silent struggle make great stories untold
And you never know what your heart is growing or what fears are growing old â€˜Till you look back one day and see a slow miracle

Verse 2:

Once on the canvas of imagination
I saw the sun shining, my worries dying
And I knew then that in this blackened hour Iâ€™d
Overcome; iâ€™d make it, like dawn iâ€™d rise

Well i donâ€™t doubt that revelation
My rainy clouds will part
But now iâ€™m sure that change occurs within the heart, and

Chorus:

Bridge:

What would i want with the easy fix?
Wisdom only comes with time
Maybe this new patient way that iâ€™ve become
Has been the miracle all along

Chorus

Tag:

Till you look back one day and see a slow miracle

---

Lyrics submitted by Josh Munnell.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>