The Staggering Genius

Superdrag

Are you miserable, are you miserable tonight?
You're invincible, indefensible, even deep and getting right
I hope you'll write some song where you mention
All the wrongs I've done
Tell everyone you're happy and order up another oneYeah, the genius staggers home
Yeah, are you better off alone?Are you satisfied, are you ever gonna be?
You're despicable inexplicable and you're meaningless to me
I hope you'll write some song where you mention
All the wrongs I've done
Tell everyone you're happy and slip into oblivionYeah, the genius staggers home
Yeah, are you better off alone?
Yeah, the genius staggers home
Yeah, are you better off alone?Are you miserable, are you miserable tonight?
You're invincible, indefensible, even deep and getting right
I hope you'll write some song where you mention
All the wrongs I've done
Tell everyone you're happy and slip into oblivionYeah, the genius staggers home
Yeah, are you better off alone?
Are you better off alone, are you better off alone?
Are you better off alone, are you better off alone?
