Intuition Interlude

Jamie Foxx

Shorty like a precious jewel
I'll take care of you
You can put your heart right in my hands, ohBaby, like the rarest flower
I'll make sure you bloom
Baby just imagine if I was your man, ohBaby I pray to you
Breakfast in the bed and every night I'd sing to you
No matter what it is before you sleep I'll have you saying
Ooh, how did he know just what to do?Like a radio I'm tuned into your soul
Oh, oh if, if it was up to me
You know I'd fill you up with love and make it flow like water
Stars at the sky, I'll place 'em in your eye
Oooh since I was a young player talking to the ladies, I just knowIt's just my intuition
(I know what you like, shorty how you like it)
I know if it possess you
I know what you feel, you can't even fight itIt's just my intuition
I know your every wish
Shorty let me in your life and watch me put it down
