Pins and Needles

Kristina Train

Pins and needles
Pins and needles, is all,
I can feel, I can feel anymore
And I've become just a shadow,
A shadow with nowhere to fallIn the morning
Every morning on my own,
In the evening, I'll be sleeping all alone
The silence you left is like thunder
The space in the bed is like stonePins and needles, that is all,
I can feel your love no morePins and needles
Pins and needles
When the feeling goes numb
And the dreaming, make believing is all done
You know I'll biting the bullet
'Cause you got your hand on a gunPins and needles, that is all,
I can feel your love no moreI got nowhere, I don't know where to go
Oh no, anymore, anymorePins and needlesPins and needlesPins and needles
