Locked Down

Turbonegro

Kick it Mr. SummersI've been locked down
I've been locked up
I've been shut down
So just shut it upI've been laughed at
I've been spit at
I've been held back
So what are you looking atI've been kicked down
I've been pissed on
I've been shat on
Gonna shut you downSuch a low-down zero
I'm just a denim boy
Just a neo-nero
Just Satan's little toyYou never kissed an angel
You never touched a snake
You never held the magic
You ain't got what it takesSaw your bitch the other day
With her mustache and her book
She called me a fake and a teller of lies
But I could tell she's never been satisfiedI saw you slumming
I heard you strumming
I see you running
Run run awaySuch a low-down zero
I'm just a denim boy
Just a neo-nero
Just Satan's little toyYou never kissed an angel
You never touched a snake
You never held the magic
You ain't got what it takesPerhaps it's a mystery
Perhaps it's a riddle
Let me spell it outWhen everybody hates you
When everybody hates you
When everybody hates you
You've got nothing to lose
