I Remember Me

Mokave

I remember me, staring at myself
See these same two eyes, see these same two feet
I remember you, you're who I used to be
You still look the same, but you don't hurt like me
Look at my reflection, somewhere my affection
Disappeared, isn't here, nothing left to say
Memories they fading but I'm the one who makes them
So I keep the love close to enough to say
What if this life is all that we are given
We just can't stop living, scared of what we'll see
'Cause in this world, anything can hurt you
Push you then forget you, stole my history
But I remember me, I remember me
It don't matter where I go, what I'm told, now you know
I remember me, I remember me
Even if I say goodbye, start to cry, do or die, I remember me
I remember me, oh, whoa
I tell you what my name is
And ain't nothing gon' change it
'Cause what you are is what you are
Even if your memory's scarred
I go to places
Trying to find familiar faces
They don't show, but I still know
They don't have to look for me
I dream about, I dream about
The place where all the broken pieces fit together
'Cause in this world, anything can hurt you
It'll push you then forget you, stole my history
But I remember me, I remember me
It don't matter where I go, what I'm told, now you know
I remember me, I remember me
Even if I say goodbye, start to cry, do or die, I remember me
Know all that's left of these hands, this breath
I've said goodbye to so many things that tears won't cry
And I take this pain, this joy and rain
'Cause all that matters now is
In this life anything can hurt you
Push you then forget you, erase your history

But I remember me, I remember me
It don't matter where I go, what I'm told, now you know
I remember me, I remember me
Even if I say goodbye, start to cry, do or die, I remember me
I remember me, oh whoa
I remember me, I tell you what my name is
I tell you what me name is
Do or die
