

Alone

Confessor

Seems like nothings clear to me
I can't find my mind to pacify
Countless millions dying alone
Countless millions dying
Alone with no signs of sadness, alone
Nobody sees the pain
Countless millions cry
Attempting mass suicide
Dying for help I hear their screams
To end their frantic dream
Seems like nothings clear to me
