

Medley: Goodnight Ladies / Leaving a Song

The Limelitters

Chorus:

Goodnight ladies (three times)

Weâ€™re going to leave you now.

As we travel all over this land

Thereâ€™s one sad thing that we find.

When the wide road calls

You must leave friends and all

Leaving a song behind for a while

Leaving a song behind.

[Chorus]

Some value money, and some value fame.

Some value women and wine

But a song and a friend â€˜round each turn of the bend

Are the riches Iâ€™d rather were mine every time,

Riches Iâ€™d rather were mine.

[Chorus]

When we are gone, may our song linger on

And its echo fall soft on your ear.

May you all live in peace and your riches increase

And your happiness grow every year, my friends,

Happiness grow every year.

[Chorus]
