

If You Can Lie a Little Bit

Kenny Rogers

If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Than it did before No hard feelings, no harm done
Its just time that I moved on
Though weve only just begun
To see the sign of things to come
It was just a little lie to get in your way If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Than it did before Wish you didnt look so good
Guess you never understood
Love is built on faith and trust
And theres no future here for us
I have made a few mistakes in my time If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Well than it did before I wanna believe you
When you say youll change for me
Shame on me If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Than it did before If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Than it did before If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier
Than it did before If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
