...and She Told Me To Leave

Lostprophets

End to it all, falling down
Losing touch with everyone
Who ever stood their ground
If you could then even I know I do too
Lost inside a maze of problems with you
Is it so hard, every time I say
"Won't you come and fight with me?"
Because if I thought I'd win you
Every word that I say would come out wrong
And make you look the other way
You know, if I thought I'd win you
Time and time again and if I did we won't be friends
And tell me I'm brought down again
Never the one I explain
Can't you, woah, don't you lie there 've been times
When I've felt good because you're hurt inside
No, that's not true, I'm just acting tough
I don't know what it is I'm feeling
I don't know if you are enough
Is it so hard, every time I say
"Won't you come and fight with me?"
Because if I thought I'd win you
Every word that I say would come out wrong
And make you look the other way
You know, if I thought I'd win you
Time and time again and if I did we won't be friends
And tell me I'm falling down again
Never the one I explain
So answer that you never know
Don't want it back, it seems to go
It's so hard, so hard
'Cause I feel alive and it feels alright
Keep on telling me that it's over, please
And I feel the warmth lying in the sun
It's so hot in here, it's the clothes I wear
Don't you even ask, I won't let you pass
My guard is up and you stole this cage
Could I? Should I? Would I?
Could I? Should I? Would I?

Could I? Should I? Would I?
