Invisible

Lunic

She walks along the city street
While everyone is still asleep
Waiting for the sun to take the night away
All the evil things she's done
They haunt her life can someone
Save her from this ordinary world
She starts to run
She's had her fun
But no one's waiting for her at the other end
Secrets locked inside her mind
No one knows just where she's been
That's what makes her invisible
Until the end, invisible
She sees a park and sits alone
Rain is falling, growing cold
Nothing seems that pretty anymore
This tainted flesh these tainted bones
Should've done what she was told
Nothing works out quite the way you plan it
And so you run
You've had your fun
But no one's waiting for you at the other end
Secrets locked inside your mind
No one knows just where you've been
That's what makes you invisible
Until the end, invisible
She's floating with the stars
She's floating up to Mars
She'll never come down
She'll never come down
