Inside

Switched

yeah
break my frustration crack the walls that hold me inside never seen the light go shining through never seemed to like the likes of you are you happy now
you broke me on the inside
the inside of my soul
should i act now
you break me on the inside
is it just lack of respect these things you do to me jealousy is all i see
but you complicate things manupilate me
but theres nothing left to believe
are you happy now
should i act now
i swear words keep on speaking secrets that your keeping tongue tied too tied to part of you
are you happy now
you sick why can't you just leave me alone the inside of my..

the inside of soul
