Words to Die For

Nasum

Dear, not to defy your priorities
The overall effect is devastating
Dive into the burning flamesOne choice, few words
From the souls of the damned
So impressive and so forfeit
Dive into the burning flamesSo what were you hoping for?
Did you expect the violence to end
Did the blood seem too red?So what are you fighting for?
All you see is the cause, the noble end
When freedom exists there will be no stateLives to sacrifice, no attempts to deny
The lies served upon silver plates, now consumed
Dead, dehumanized, the lives to sacrifice
You're dead anyway, anyhowWill you dive into the burning flames?
And sacrifice yourself to fill the void
So were these words worth dying for?
Do you even care or is it the end that you adore?
